

Riverbend Medical Center Regional Infusion Center (RIC)
3377 Riverbend Drive Suite 502/510
Springfield, Oregon 97477
Phone 541-222-6280 Fax 541-349-8006

Benralizumab (FASENRA) INFUSION (v 04/18/2024)

Diagnosis/Indication (ICD-10): _____

Medications:

- Benralizumab 30 mg subcutaneous injection every 28 days x 3 doses then benralizumab 30 mg subcutaneous injection every 56 days

Nursing communications:

- Vital signs: Initial and prn
- Monitor patient for 30 minutes post 1st injection for hyper/ hypotension, dyspnea, nausea, itching, hives, rash, and wheezing
- Counsel patients regarding signs and symptoms of anaphylaxis with instruction to seek immediate medical care if symptoms occur

Emergency Medications:

- DiphenhydrAMINE (BENADRYL) 25 to 50 mg IV as needed for mild to moderate drug reactions (flushing, dizziness, headaches, diaphoresis, fever, palpitations, chest discomfort, blood pressure changes ( $\geq$  20 points in SBP), nausea, urticaria, chills, pruritic).
-- Administer 25 mg IV once. if reaction does not resolve in 3 minutes may repeat 25 mg IV dose for a total of 50 mg and contact provider.
mild to moderate drug reaction (flushing, dizziness, headaches, diaphoresis, fever, palpitations, chest discomfort, blood pressure changes ( $\geq$  20 points in SBP), nausea, urticaria, chills, pruritic) that worsen or persist 5 minutes after administration of diphenhydramine (Benadryl).
Contact provider if given.
- Epinephrine 0.3 mg IM once for anaphylaxis. If reaction does not resolve in 3 minutes may repeat 0.3 mg IM dose for a total of 0.6 mg. Avoid use of hand, foot, leg veins in elderly patient and those with occlusive vascular disease. Contact provider if given.
- Famotidine (PEPCID) 20 mg IV once as needed for infusion/ allergic reaction.
- Emergency medications can be given IM if IV route unavailable

Patient name and DOB _____

Provider printed name: _____

Provider signature: _____

Height _____ Weight _____

Date: _____ Time: _____